

Fate hit me very hard one day.
I cried: "What is my fault?
What have I done? What causes, pray,
This unprovoked assault?"
She paused, then said: "Darned if I know!
I really can't explain!"
And just before she turned to go
She whacked me once again!

BANQUETED

State Grand Chancellor Sherman Arn of the K. of P. Lodge Right Royally Entertained Last Night

Delightful Occasion Attended By Large Gathering of Brother Knights, Both From Local and Surrounding Lodges

Not "women, wine and song," but "speeches fine and songs—also 'cats'" were the nucleus of last night's banquet given by Maysville Limestone Lodge No. 36, K. of P., to the new Grand Chancellor of the State, Sherman Arn, a man from the local lodge and one who has most rightfully won this honor because he has worked diligently and earnestly for his lodge in every way possible. Last night's glad occasion was a fitting festivity to honor this man who has brought new laurels to his home lodge and his home town.

There was just enough singing, oratory and feasting to fully satisfy the two hundred and fifty gentlemen who assembled at 8:15 p. m. in the spacious main hall of the K. of P. building.

His Honor, Mayor J. Wesley Lee, called the assembly to order and he was very brief and terse in his remarks. He said that there had been four State Grand Chancellors chosen from Maysville and that this was an honor which no other lodge in the State of Kentucky could boast of. He said that the program was quite lengthy he would limit each speaker to ten minutes, with the exception of Hon. George Carter, Grand Keeper of Records and Seals, "Daddy" Moore, Superintendent of the Pythian Home, and his old schoolmate and friend, Prof. W. T. Berry.

The Girls' Pythian Home Quartet composed of Misses Irene Berkley, Orley Perkins, Bessie Berch and Lola McBlain, accompanied on the piano by Miss Eloise North, a matron in the home, were the first to be introduced and they delighted the assembly with two beautiful selections.

"Be a Booster."

Rev. F. W. Harrop of Latonia was the first speaker on the program and he spoke on the subject of "Be a Booster." Rev. Harrop, as is his way, was in a happy and witty mood and his first act upon taking the platform was to throw aside the gavel on the table, saying that it was not consistent with the trend of his address. His message was an inspiration to Pythians. He said that everyone was a booster in a limited sense, but that they should always be boosters to an unlimited extent. He said that everyone should boost for Pythianism and what it stood for. He said that there was only one way of putting Pythianism at the top where it belongs and that is by making your motto to be always—"Be a Booster."

"What Kind of a Lodge Would This Lodge Be If Every Member Was Just Like Me?"

This was the subject of the toast responded to by Attorney Allan D. Cole. Mr. Cole said that as far as attending lodge was concerned the lodge would be a failure if every member was just like him, he being out of town so much and so busy engaged in his law practice, but that merely attending lodge does not mean that you are a good lodge member. "It is what you get out of the underlying principles of the lodge," he said, "that counts—the things that make you know your duties to each other as fellow lodge members."

"The Growth of Pythianism"

"The Growth of Pythianism" was the toast responded to by Mr. Ben H. Greenlee. Mr. Greenlee, as usual, was earnest and eloquent and soon had the banqueters in touch with his theme. He told of the growth of Pythianism—how it was first started in this country.

ADMITTED TO BAIL

Russell Paul, Young Boy Held on Charge of Murder, Released Under Bond of $2,500.

Yesterday afternoon in the Mason Circuit Court, Russell Paul, the young boy held on the charge of having murdered the infant son belonging to his sister several weeks ago, was admitted to bail until his trial on December 1st, his bond being placed at $2,500.

The case of this young man is one of the saddest affairs that has come to the attention of the people of Maysville for some time and the grounds for his release yesterday were that his act bore no previous or premeditated malice.

The bond was signed by Thomas A. Davis, John D. Wood, J. T. Kackley, Fred Cabbish, William Byron, John Flanagan, Thomas A. Keith and C. L. Wood.

Mr. John Burwell, local manager of the Liggitt & Meyers Tobacco Co., Thursday purchased from Mr. Fred Cabbish his residence in East Second street.
